EXHIBIT C — SESSION RECORDING LOG

Session audio recordings maintained in the Practice's recording archive in the ordinary course of its work — contemporaneous, timestamped records of services delivered.

The Practice records client sessions (with consent) in its ordinary course of business. The tables below list every session recording in the archive for the three family members served under the family-services arrangement, exactly as maintained: recording date, the recording's original title as dictated at capture, and duration. Recordings are grouped under each family member's full legal name.

Irene Bustillo Adachi

Recording titles as dictated at capture: "Irene Bustillo 1", "Irene Mamá", "Irene bustillo", "Irene Bustillo".

#	Date	Original recording title (as dictated)	Duration

Notes

Name standardization. Recording titles were dictated by voice at the time of capture and vary in spelling and form. Each recording is grouped above under the family member's full legal name — Irene Bustillo Adachi, Irene Maria Meza, and Angelica Lucia Meza — with every original title preserved verbatim in the table. The archive itself is unaltered.

† Feb. 23, 2026 (0:16): a sixteen-second recording — an inadvertent capture, not a session; included for completeness and excluded from any session count.

‡ May 16, 2026 (“Irene maria personal”, 44:48): title as dictated; the Practice to confirm session status before this recording is counted in any session tally.

Scope. This log lists recorded sessions only; any session conducted without recording is not reflected here, so the archive represents a floor, not a ceiling, on services delivered. The disputed billing period is April 8 – July 24, 2026; recordings before that period document the continuing arrangement under which the family was served since December 2025.

Recordings themselves are preserved and available for review on request.
